The Orangeburg County Chamber of Commerce announces plans to begin work on the 2009 edition of the Orangeburg community magazine featuring the Orangeburg County region.

According to Mr. Coleman, President of the Chamber, "Orangeburg community magazine provides an extremely effective means for marketing our community to a variety of audiences and is an invaluable tool in attracting and informing newcomers and business prospects of every description. Through this publication, visitors, potential newcomers and investors can get a firsthand glimpse of our beautiful community, as well as the businesses and services available in our area. The publication offers a value-driven advertising opportunity for chamber members and a unique opportunity to promote your business services or products to other businesses in our community."

As a chamber member, SouthComm Publishing Company, Inc. will produce this official chamber publication. Mr. Chris Ferrell, CEO of SouthComm, comments, "We are proud to be the publisher of choice for this important marketing endeavor. We look forward to working with the businesses and leadership of the area."

A SouthComm representative will call on chamber members to discuss advertising and marketing solutions offered through this high-quality publication. For more information, you may contact the Orangeburg County Chamber of Commerce at 803.534.6821.
